Cash Compensation

Fixed Cash Allowances

Rice, meal, clothing, laundry, transportation and car allowances form part of the fixed cash allowances provided. Transportation and car allowances are provided based on an employee's job grade and location.

Guaranteed Bonus

It is also known as the 13th-month pay and is paid to all Optum employees. This bonus is equivalent to one month's basic salary subject to applicable pro-ratio based on actual number of days rendered in a year.

Variable Compensation Plan

Depending on an employee's role, the employee may have an opportunity to participate in a variable compensation plan as per Company Policy. Specific details regarding the plan, if any, will be provided by your immediate manager.

Pay Review

The company undertakes an annual performance-related salary review called Common Review. As a result of the salary review, employees may receive a salary increase called merit increase. The merit increase is not an entitlement and is subject to an individual's performance and achievement of objectives.

Holiday Pay and Rest Day Premium

Holiday pay and rest day premiums are provided as per the applicable statutory premium rates depending on the employee's eligibility.

Overtime Pay

Employees who are eligible for overtime are those who do not hold supervisory or managerial responsibilities/positions and are required to work on holidays or beyond their stipulated regular work hours. Overtime pay will apply only to individuals who work beyond regular work hours.

Night Shift Premium

Employees at salary grades 20 – 26 who are required to work between 10PM and 6AM are eligible for the Night Shift Differential. This is an additional compensation of 10% of an employee's regular wage per hour.

4. Savings and Housing - Home Development Mutual Fund (Pag-IBIG)

The fund offers its members savings, short term loans and access to housing programs. These programs help finance members for their immediate medical, educational or livelihood needs, minor home improvement, purchase of appliance and furniture and other related needs. Optum contributes to the fund as outlined by law.

Recognition

We are committed to creating a culture where positive appreciation and recognition are part of our everyday behavior. Our global recognition program, Bravo!, enables recognition to be delivered in a consistent, meaningful, and timely way, and be visible across the organization.

Training and Staff Development

Training (in both technical and soft skills) is offered face-to-face and via web conference. Computer-based training is also offered to all employees through a learning management system called LearnSource, which is found on the HRdirect web site: <https://hrdirecthelpdesk.uhg.com>

LearnSource offers a variety of resources to employees, including a wide range of on-line courses, the company's standard operating procedures and advice about how to manage a range of work situations.

Business Book Summaries

LearnSource also provides free access to summaries of many popular business books, and new titles are added every quarter. The library includes summary reviews of more than 550 leading business books about leadership, business strategy, customer satisfaction and personal growth. Each summary provides a concise, chapter-by-chapter synopsis, as well as a critical evaluation of the quality and value of the corresponding book.

Reimbursement of Professional Registration Fees

The Company, subject to the signing of a payback agreement, may reimburse a maximum of two registration/membership fees (professional bodies to be confirmed), subject to a maximum overall cap. This will be at the discretion of management.

Employee Referral Programme

Employees of the company are invited to refer individuals they know who may be suited for advertised positions. In the event that a candidate referred by an employee is hired, the employee may receive a cash bonus (depending on position and grade). The referral bonus will be paid after the new hire has completed three month of employment since the date when he or she joined Optum.
